In need of the latest handbook?
Looking for a scarce, out of print book?
Want to be informed about newly published books?

Perhaps our company can be of assistance!

We have a large stock of about 2000 titles of new and antiquarian books (not counting smaller reprints) and journals on molluscs. Every year we issue one or two catalogues with a selection of our stock. Our customers also receive up to date lists with newly published malacological books. These catalogues and lists are sent free of charge.

Dr. W. Backhuys has been publishing malacological books for over 25 years now. A selection of the recently published titles is presented below.
